Youngstown All Breed Training Club

Presents

Fred Hulme Saturday June 23, 2012 Problem solving

Judy Askew Sunday June 24, 2012 Doodle Seminar

On Saturday from 9 to 4 , Fred Hume will help you solve your training problems. Fred will select from your pre submitted problems. He will show you his solutions to those knotty issues that have bugged you all winter. There will be a maximum of 25 participants and no auditors. While Fred will work on as many problems as possible, there is no guarantee that every problem submitted will be worked on

On Sunday from 9 to 4, Judy Askew will help you add sparkle to your training with a doodle workshop. These doodles will isolate parts of exercises and by improving them, add value to the whole. These exercises are aimed at making training more fun for you and your dog. There will be a maximum of 25 people divided into groups. Each person will get floor time each hour.

What you need to know: *Cost $50 per day *No more than 25 participants per day. *No auditors

One hour lunch break. We will open up the dining room but will not provide lunch. There are several fast food providers and one restaurant in easy driving distance.

We will provide coffee, hot water, fruit and pastry in the morning.
